CSMS # 69326983 - GUIDANCE: Section 301 Forced Labor Import Duties

- Effective July 24, 2026, the United States will impose additional tariffs ranging from 10% to 12.5% on imports from 60 economies.
- The action is being taken under Section 301 of the Trade Act of 1974.
- Certain products or imports may qualify for specified exemptions.
- The tariffs are associated with a USTR action addressing concerns related to forced labor practices, as outlined in the referenced Federal Register notice.
- Importers, trade compliance professionals, and other stakeholders should review the USTR notice to determine:
 - Whether their imports are covered by the tariffs.
 - The applicable tariff rate (10% or 12.5%).
 - Any exclusions or exemptions that may apply.
 - Compliance requirements effective upon entry on or after July 24, 2026.

For a complete list of applicable HTSUS tariff numbers and duty rates by country/economy, see the reference table below.
