3. The terms of office for each candidate for Outside Director are 8 years for Mr. Tetsuya Kobayashi, 6 years for Ms. Sanae Tanaka, and 3 years for Mr. Jun Yanai.
4. Additionally, there are transactions such as those for freight transport between the Company and KNT-CT Holdings Co., Ltd., where Mr. Tetsuya Kobayashi serves as Director, PILOT CORPORATION, where Ms. Sanae Tanaka serves as Director, and Mitsubishi Corporation, where Mr. Jun Yanai serves as Corporate Advisor, but the amount of these transactions is insignificant (less than 1% of the consolidated net sales).
5. Kintetsu Department Store Co., Ltd., where Mr. Tetsuya Kobayashi serves as Director, received an on-site inspection from the Japan Fair Trade Commission over alleged violations of the Antimonopoly Act (cartel) on July 19, 2017 due to an increase of shipping costs for benefits gifts applied during mid-year and year-end seasons, and received a cease and desist order and a payment order for surcharge by the Commission on October 3, 2018. In addition, The Kansai Electric Power Company, Incorporated (hereinafter referred to as “KEPCO”), where Mr. Tetsuya Kobayashi serves as Outside Director, established a Third-party Committee on October 9, 2019 to investigate the case including acceptance of a large amount of cash and gifts by KEPCO’s officers/employees from a former deputy mayor of Takahama Town, Fukui Prefecture. Furthermore, the Investigation Report from the Third-party Committee found that the remuneration paid to some officers when they were entrusted with commissioned work after their retirement included intention to compensate for their additional tax burden arising from their revised tax declarations and previous decrease in their remuneration during KEPCO’s business slumps. After confirming the facts, such paid remuneration has been fully collected. Given these issues in relation to KEPCO officials receiving cash and gifts from external parties and remuneration paid to retired officers, KEPCO reported to the Minister of Economy, Trade and Industry the business improvement plan under the order for business improvement based on Electricity Business Act on March 30, 2020. Later, another acceptance of cash and gifts was found at KEPCO and its three group companies, and an additional report was made on October 6, 2020 based on Article 106, Paragraph 3 of Electricity Business Act. Mr. Tetsuya Kobayashi has always made suggestions at KEPCO’s board meetings to strengthen the internal control and corporate governance. Furthermore, since those incidents were revealed, he has fulfilled his responsibilities by carrying out duties required as an Outside Director, including making suggestions to help KEPCO establish a business improvement plan for prevention of recurrence.
