Israel Shuts Down Airspace Amid Rising Tensions

- Due to recent security developments, and in line with directives from aviation authorities, the Israel Flight Information Region (FIR) airspace has been officially closed.
- As a result, all flights to and from Tel Aviv have been suspended until further notice.
- This airspace closure affects all inbound and outbound flights connecting to Israel.
- KWE will continue to closely monitor the situation and provide updates as more information becomes available.
- Additionally, flights to and from other parts of the Middle East and Asia are being rerouted to avoid the airspace being affected.
- Customers with shipments routed through the impacted regions may experience delays or changes in flight scheduling.
- For questions regarding specific shipments or routing alternatives, please contact your local KWE representative.

KWE is closely monitoring the situation and will keep you informed of any changes
